RE: Allen, et al. v. Krucial Staffing, LLC et al., 20-cv-2859(JGK)(OTW) ERRATA

Dear Judge Wang:

Ms. Gasper emailed me at or about 5:15 Central promising to file her own letter because her assistant had to leave at 5:30 Central Time. This threat came after much back and forth about the issues. As such, plaintiffs mistakenly reported in the paragraph starting on page 2:

“The documents attached include (1)”

The paragraph should begin: “The documents we ask be made public include (1)” etcetera

We did not file any documents, of course. We had intended to file a small batch then we got caught up on interpretation of the rules, the number of documents, redaction. Then I got the above-mentioned email, gave the letter a once over, missing some things, but deciding that the perfect is the enemy of the good. That’s the only glaring error. Other than that, perhaps a conference would suffice.

Also the documents we seek to file on the public record were identified by the defense, and there’s no magic, in a joint letter, for one side to go first or not. I could be wrong, of course, and if I am I’m sure you will let me know.

Sincerely,

/s/ Greg S. Antollino
